Dear Sirs,

We kindly invite you to participate in the Silesian International Medical Congress for Students and Young Doctors which will take place on 28-29th April in Katowice.

Organiser of the conference is STN SUM in Katowice. STN aim is to coordinate the activities of students' scientific groups, participation in academic life of the Silesian Medical University and representing students achievements to the authorities of medicine. The conference purpose is to exchange knowledge experience between the various representatives of science, medicine, pharmacy etc.

It is our great pleasure and privilege to invite you to this event- all the necessary information will be placed in next e-mails and on our website (<http://stn.sum.edu.pl/>) and on the STN fanpage:

(<https://www.facebook.com/STN-Studenckie-Towarzystwo-Naukowe-SUM-w-Katowicach-584476801701025/>).

Yours faithfully,
